

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AUGUST 2011: CALGARY*Life without Limits Challenge

September 17th is our Annual Life without Limits challenge race at Fish Creek Park. This annual fundraising event allows participants to walk, run or “wheel” their way over a 5 km course to the finish line. We are looking for volunteers for a variety of positions. Get your friends and family together and spend a day volunteering with the CPAA. Contact Marci at 403-219-3610 or email marci@cpalberta.com to sign up today.

Love to Dance

Every eight weeks the CPAA has a dance program running for persons 3-10 years of age with a disability. The volunteer position requires the love of dance, the ability to assist the participant in doing movements facilitated by the instructor. No previous dance experience is required. A child welfare and police check will be performed on all volunteers. Location is VVRI. Programs will start again in the fall. Come for a interview now and have all you paperwork and security checks approved.

Little Nemo's Swimming Program

The CPAA has a fabulous volunteer opportunity to work with our littlest members in the water. The participants are between 3 and 10 years old. This is a six week, one hour commitment. All interested applicants should set up an interview. This opportunity requires a police and child welfare check done. Location is VVRI. Program will start again in the fall.
