

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES JULY 2011: CALGARY

Students

Looking to volunteer over the summer to get a head start on your credits for next year- give me a call!

Thunder Run

Our first Annual Thunder run is on August 6th. We are looking for volunteers to help with registration, set up, and take down and to help at various locations along the course.

Garden Enthusiasts

Come help us get our gardens looking summer ready! Do you have a green thumb? Love to prune? Do we have some much needed gardens for you?

Casino Casino Casino

It is Casino time again for The CPAA and we are looking to fill the key Casino positions. If you love the thrill and actions of working the casino, are free on September 14 or 15 then we need you. Various positions and shifts available.

Life without Limits Challenge

September 17th is our Annual Life without Limits challenge race at Fish Creek Park. we are looking for volunteers for a variety of positions. Get your friends and family together and spend a day volunteering with the CPAA.

Love to Dance

Every eight weeks the CPAA has a dance program running for persons 3-10 years of age with a disability. The volunteer position requires the love of dance, the ability to assist the participant in doing movements facilitated by the instructor. No previous dance experience is required. A child welfare and police check will be performed on all volunteers. Location is VVRI. Programs will start again in the fall. Come for a interview now and have all you paperwork and security checks approved.

Little Nemo's Swimming Program

The CPAA has a fabulous volunteer opportunity to work with our littlest members in the water. The participants are between 3 and 10 years old. This is a six week, one hour commitment. All interested applicants should set up an interview. This opportunity requires a police and child welfare check done. Location is VVRI. Program will start again in the fall.
