

Patricia Wheatley

With a nursing and rehabilitation background, Patricia's caring and patience have made her a remarkable adoptive mom to fifteen children with disabilities. Experiencing the daily needs of her children has given Patricia a plethora of insight on effective support and programming for families supporting loved ones. Patricia has also had experience volunteering as part of a School Council managing fundraising and enrichment programs.

