

David Dziadyk

David Dziadyk is a retired high school teacher, as well as the father of Kasenya, who is a 25-year-old woman with cerebral palsy. He has been on the CPAA board of directors since 2009. David and his wife, Laverne, have travelled the world extensively with their children Devin and Kasenya embodying the CPAA motto of Life Without Limits. The family founded the “No Ordinary Journey Foundation,” which is revolutionizing the care, treatment understanding and acceptance of children with cerebral palsy in SE Asia. David’s personal interests include hunting, fishing, canoeing, cycling and he recently completed a cycling trip circumnavigating Taiwan.

