

Paul Albert

With almost 20 years of sales experience at Telus, Paul is a leader in the business of communication. Driven by a background in competitive sports, Paul transfers this energy into working with large market corporate customers and towards his favourite small clients, his two young daughters. Originally from the East coast, Paul revels in the winter sports accessible from Calgary, taking part in climbing and skiing. Paul has previous board experience from working with Winter Start, channeling an interest in skiing to support hosting World Cup ski races in Alberta.
